The Adviser Profile - Part 2 details specific services your Adviser is able to advise on.

What is the Financial Advice process?

The Financial advice process starts with client engagement, identification of goals and objectives and the comprehensive information gathering process.

By agreement we will then formulate the strategies that we believe will best meet your goals and objectives.

These strategies will then be provided in a Financial Plan (Statement of Advice).

The agreed Recommendations will then be implemented and on-going service and reviews are then discussed.

What can I Expect?

Your Adviser is committed to providing quality financial advice and a choice of products and/or services to suit your circumstances. Whilst we are licensed to provide a range of services, we are also obliged under law to have a reasonable basis for our advice and to act in your best interests when providing financial advice, addressing your needs and the solutions you want us to assist you with.

Your adviser is also subject to an Ethical Code that opposes conflicts of interest & misrepresentation whilst promoting efficient, honest & fair dealing; enabling your free, prior & informed consent to recommendations, fees & services.

We will not compromise on our advice and will take this responsibility very seriously.

In order to achieve this, your Adviser will need to determine your needs, objectives and relevant financial circumstances before providing advice, products and/or services to you. You will be asked to provide accurate information and to keep your adviser updated on any changes to your circumstances to ensure the advice provided and products recommended remains relevant to your personal situation.

You have the right not to divulge any information should you wish not to do so, however, in such cases, your adviser will warn you about the possible consequences of not providing relevant personal and financial information and how this may impact the quality and reliability of the advice provided. Additionally, your adviser may also decline to provide advice if they feel they cannot do so adequately with the information provided or the advice would be beyond their formal expertise.

Before providing any financial products and/or services to you, we are also required to verify your identity in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006. Your adviser will let you know what documentation is needed to meet these customer identification requirements.

Subject to its appropriateness for you, any product recommended to you by your Adviser must be included on InterPrac Financial Planning's Approved Products List. This list is constructed and maintained by the InterPrac Financial Planning Investment Committee, using ratings and reports from leading research groups.

The purpose of the list is to ensure that:

- Recommended product providers have the necessary skills, resources and experience to achieve their stated investment objectives and
- Our Advisers have a broad range of researched products to select from in meeting the diverse needs of their clients.

In instances where your Adviser may need to consider products outside the Approved Products List, they may apply to InterPrac Financial Planning for special consideration.

To ensure that you remain on track to meet your short to long-term needs and objectives, it is vital to periodically review your financial advice, products and/or services based on your needs, objectives and circumstances to be sure they remain relevant. Where you enter into an ongoing service arrangement, your adviser will offer and hold an annual comprehensive personal review service. This service updates the advice in line with your needs and implements any changes which you have agreed upon. A fee may be charged for the ongoing advice and management of your financial affairs. Your adviser will provide you with details of any such fees applicable to you.

Does everything need to be in Writing?

Your adviser may accept instructions from you via phone, letter, email or fax. In some instances, your adviser can only accept written instructions from you, and they will let you know when this happens.

Your adviser is required to maintain a paper or electronic record of your personal information, including details of your relevant personal circumstances. Your adviser is also required to maintain records of documentation for any financial advice given to you in the course of taking instructions from you, as well as any documents containing advice they have provided you. Please see our Privacy Policy regarding the care of this information in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles.

What Financial Advice Documents can I expect?

In providing you financial advice, these are some of the documents you may receive from your adviser:

- Statement of Advice
- Record of Advice
- Fee Disclosure Statement

When you are provided with personal advice that considers your needs, objectives and relevant financial circumstances, you will receive a Statement of Advice. The Statement of Advice sets out the specific advice given to you, including any recommendations about particular financial products and services, and the basis on which those recommendations are made. The Statement of Advice also provides information on the amount of any commissions and other fees payable in respect of financial products recommended to you in connection with this advice.

Under certain circumstances your financial adviser may provide you with a Record of Advice, rather than a Statement of Advice. A Record of Advice performs a similar function to a Statement of Advice, but is typically a shorter, more informal document.

Where an ongoing advice fee is charged by your adviser, a Fee Disclosure Statement will be provided annually.

The Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS) is an annual record of fees received and services provided over the previous 12 months plus the fees to be charged and the services to be expected over the following 12 months.

It requires that you, the client, will be required to accept the proposed arrangements by signing and returning it.

Any fee/service arrangement can be terminated by either party, preferably in writing or the arrangement will lapse automatically if the FDS is not returned.

Should you misplace your documentation, you may request in writing, a copy of any advice document you received, up to seven years after the advice has been given. Please refer to the Privacy Policy – Access to Personal Information for details on requesting a copy of your documentation.

What Fees & Charges can I expect?

InterPrac Financial Planning prefers that our Advisers are paid on a 'fee for service' basis. In some instances, insurance providers may pay commission. Depending on the provider, all fees and commissions are paid directly to InterPrac Financial Planning on a fortnightly, monthly or quarterly basis. InterPrac Financial Planning retains a portion of the fee and commission income generated by each Adviser. InterPrac then pays the balance of the fee and commission income to your Adviser.

Please refer to the Adviser Profile - Part 2 which sets out the specific details of payments to your Adviser and/or any third parties, and the fees you may be charged.

InterPrac Financial Planning receives payments or benefits from certain product as part of an Education and Training partnership. These funds are used for the approved purposes of Education and Training and are not payable to your adviser. In return these providers are granted opportunities to participate in events such as Professional Development days. These payments are only to offset the cost of providing education and training for our advisers.

InterPrac Financial Planning has arrangements with Diversa and Australian Practical Superannuation Pty Ltd to provide marketing and administration services for which it receives a fee. This fee is not payable to your adviser and where relevant is detailed in the Statement of Advice.

InterPrac Financial Planning and its Advisers are prohibited from accepting gifts or inducements over $300. Any benefit given to InterPrac Financial Planning between $100 to $300 will be recorded in a Gifts Register. A copy of your adviser's and InterPrac Financial Planning's registers are available on request. If you wish to inspect either register, please contact your adviser or our Head Office.

Referral Fees

InterPrac Financial Planning and its Advisers work closely with many professional people and organisations such as accountants and solicitors. Where referrals are received from these sources on a business-to-business level, a referral fee may be paid.

Please note, Referral fees may not be received by or paid to advisers individually. This is to ensure that no conflicts of interest can arise.

Also note that referral fees are not a separate charge to you, they are paid from the fees received by InterPrac Financial Planning.

About Straight Money Talk

Straight Money Talk is a small company with family values. Our philosophy is all about getting our clients to where they want to go by helping them chart a path to achieve their financial and life goals. We listen to our clients and help them realise their specific lifestyle needs and wants. No question is too hard and we'll always be there when they need help, especially at the big moments in life.

We'll tell you the truth about your money, but in a kind and thoughtful way. We try to be diligent and provide the best possible advice and share our knowledge to help you with practical support along the way to achieving your goals.

About Your Adviser

Robert grew up on the family farm in Tennessee. When he was a young boy his father suffered a complicated hip fracture in a farm accident when a tractor rolled back over him. It took 8 months for his father to recover, and his mother had to work in a sock factory for minimum wages just to feed the family. The resulting financial hardship left an indelible impression on Robert. Before coming to Australia in 1990 he spent five years in the US Military and was based in Germany and the US during this time. Robert came to Australia from the US for six months and has stayed for 30 years.

Robert's expertise is in wealth creation and retirement planning. With the right tools and knowledge, he helps you develop a plan for financial independence by setting up savings goals and he supports you in achieving them. With a clear strategy and budget to create your retirement savings you will enjoy peace of mind and relief from the day-to-day stress of managing money. Robert helps you discover that you can dream BIG for whatever goals you have and he will be there at every step of the way.

As an experienced Financial Planner and Accountant, Robert knows that telling the truth about your money, whether you like it or not is key to getting you on the road to financial independence.

Robert's passion is to help you understand that no matter how much money you have or earn, you always have options. He teaches you that achieving financial independence is not a dream, it is actually based on common sense and requires conscious action and effort.

Robert has been a Financial Planner, Accountant and Business Advisor since 1990. He holds a Bachelor in Accounting from the University of Tennessee and a Master in Finance from Georgia State University. Now based in Norman Park, he specialises in helping builders and tradies develop their business. He has published two books about managing finances.

In 2010, Robert published his first book "5 Steps to Financial Independence", which is a practical working guide to help you navigate your way to financial independence and success.

Published in 2012, Robert's "Straight Money Talk – A Straightforward Plan for Financial Independence" reached bestseller status on Amazon in its category. To the point, easily understood and based on a simple system which anyone can follow if they commit to it, his strategies are focused on building and protecting REAL wealth, which can help people for generations to come.

Robert is a specialist at helping people get on the right financial path and working with them to set and achieve their financial goals. He is a realist and teaches practical strategies, not 'pie-in-the-sky pipe dreams'.

His wealth creation and protection system are simple, predictable, and based on old-fashioned values. In a world of 'spin selling' you'll be refreshed (perhaps even a little shocked) by his straightforward approach and you'll know instantly that he is sincere about helping you.

His business title is very apt and sums up Robert, being a "Straight Money Talk" guy whose primary objective is to help people to improve their finances and add value to their lives. Robert doesn't sugarcoat his advice. He tells you the truth about your financial situation even when it's hard to hear. And he's obsessed about exposing the 'get rich quick schemes' that do nothing more than steal your time and money.

As an Accountant and Financial Planner Robert has not only worked with over 67 different types of businesses, but also with clients who are employees and retirees. During his career Robert has been both an employee and a business owner. He has also owned a number of non-accounting businesses including a motel and a restaurant. His vast experience in the work and business world allows him to understand exactly what challenges people face to make their money and get ahead financially, whether as an employee or an employer.

He likes his football, played Gridiron while living in the US, and now enjoys riding motorbikes (previously motocross). Robert also enjoys cooking, especially pancakes for his grandchildren.
